

PROFESSIONAL PATH

In 1986, she starts her career in Paris by taking part within the Accor Group in several projects of hotel openings.

In 1994, the Accor Group appoints her in South-East Asia to hold Hotels' General Management and Operational Direction positions, specifically for opening or restructuring projects.

In year 2000, she creates, launches, manages and develops a luxury hotel chain in Vietnam and Cambodia: the "Victoria Hotels and Resorts" a success story is born!

At the head of a team of 1,300 employees including 40 expatriates, and within a period of six years only, she develops the hotel chain with : 1 hotel management company, 6 hotels and 1 travel agency. She successfully negotiates with the Vietnamese government for a private train offering sleeping and restaurant carriages and a fleet of 4 speed boats.

Thanks to her initiatives, the company turnover is increased by 7.

After spending fifteen years in South-East Asia, she comes back home and launches a hotel chain with three hotels in the South of France : 2 hotels opened within one year with budget objectives widely achieved.

More recently, she managed the pre-opening and opening of the Hotel Montaigne, a 5-star Parisian boutique-hotel.

Recognized by her peers, she is regularly called upon as a trainer for students in Master 2 level and hotel general managers.